
TOO COARSE FOR JOHN.

April 1th, 1911.

Dear Mac,—Kingsley often said that the condition of the worker would ever be getting worse. That the standard of living would reduce itself to its lowest level, viz., rice and rats of the Orientals. But according to today's New York Times, even the Chinese are complaining of the bill of fare under the capitalist system, for "thirteen Chinese sailors deserted yesterday from the British steamship 'Sergeant Fels' at the Standard Oil docks in Bayonne. They went to police headquarters and declared they had been ill-treated and poorly fed and asked that the British consul send them back to China. Chief of Police John Yore returned them to the ship, and notified the consul," and so

Yours for the revolt,

C. McMAHON SMITH.
